THE CATHEDRAL OF SAINT HELENA, with twin Gothic spires rising 230 feet above the ground, overlooks the city of Helena, Montana. Its cornerstone was laid in 1908. It is a smaller reproduction of the famous cathedral of Cologne in Europe. Inside the church is an altar of Carrara marble and the Cathedral's stained glass windows were made by the world-renowned firm in Bavaria.

Pub. & Dist. by BOB ANDERSON POSTCARDS, Kalispell, Montana 59901

Post Card

20204-C

dp MADE BY
DEXTER PRESS, INC.
WEST NYACK, NEW YORK